“ I provide world-class real estate transactions for buyers and sellers. Real estate is a dynamic process that requires a seasoned REALTOR®. As a buyer or seller, you need an effective, responsive professional who understands the dynamics of the market and can leverage it to your benefit. I can facilitate the successful sale and/or purchase of your home or investment.

Real estate is my passion. My passion is simple: to deliver both market and product expertise to drive your transaction, backed by innovative marketing and solid negotiations. I provide proven staging expertise and moving advice when you are downsizing, upsizing or relocating. I'll seamlessly handle the deadlines, documentation and details. Count on my comprehensive services and responsive communications, ensuring your satisfaction.

Get information, resources and expertise. If the thought of moving has kept you from selling or buying a home, you've found the right licensed real estate professional. Your sale will be in good hands. From showing your home in its best light to suggesting trusted vendors — or sharing what to do in town — you can count on me. So call me now. Let's meet to provide you with a FREE, no-obligation consultation. ”

What People Are Saying...

“Krisandra’s personal touch and attention to detail made our sale happen! As a gifted home stager, she expertly updated our home. Although 12 other condos in our subdivision were for sale, ours sold first for a higher price.”
Pat and Cheryl McCaffery

“To sell my older home, Krisandra staged it to highlight its features and square footage, transforming it into an airy, contemporary space. She developed a marketing plan and accurately priced the home to sell. I received multiple offers and accepted one well-above asking price.”

“When I was ready to buy my new home, her knowledge of the community, the market and house values was invaluable. She negotiated like a champ.”
